By Sharon Licht

CCB Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. James Browne (illustrator). Paperback. 112 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 8.3in. x 0.5in. This is a fictional story written in rhyme, and a sequel to Sharon Licht's previous book, Magic Marmalade: A Tale of the Moonlight Fairies. Return of Chancellor Paddywack begins late one night when Tracie, the young girl in the story, is awakened by a signal from her magic marmalade jar. A knock on the window, an unexpected visitor, and an invitation invite you back to the enchanted forest for yet another magical adventure. You, the reader, will be introduced to new and exciting characters: Tracie's friend, Travis Holly, two magical horses, a rainbow dragon, a Shaman, as well as magical fairies and awesome elves. It seems the fairies who live in the enchanted forest are losing their magical powers. What is causing the fairies to lose their powers? What can be done to help the fairies regain their powers? Find out when you follow these adorable storybook characters through the enchanted forest as they search for a happy ending. About the Author and Illustrator: Sharon Elizabeth Bleasdale-Licht of Holland, Pennsylvania grew up in Morrisville, Pennsylvania, a town in Bucks County, PA. Sharon is...
