

Tourism, Religion and Spiritual Journeys

By -

Taylor Francis Ltd, United Kingdom, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 232 x 154 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Religion and spirituality are still among the most common motivations for travel - many major tourism destinations have developed largely as a result of their connections to sacred people, places and events. Providing a comprehensive assessment of the primary issues and concepts related to this intersection of tourism and religion, this revealing book gives a balanced discussion of both the theoretical and applied subjects that destination planners, religious organizations, scholars, and tourism service providers must deal with on a daily basis. Bringing together a distinguished list of contributors, this volume takes a global approach and incorporates substantial empirical cases from Hinduism, Islam, Judaism, Roman Catholicism, Mormonism, New Ageism, Sikhism, Buddhism, and the spiritual philosophies of East Asia. On a conceptual level, it considers, amongst other topics: * contested heritage * the pilgrim-tourist dichotomy * secularization of pilgrimage experiences * religious humanism * educational aspects of religious tourism * commodification of religious icons and services. A vibrant collection of essays, this outstanding book discusses many important practices, paradigms, and problems that are currently being examined and debated. It raises an...
