Supposing Danby to have been missed, and traced, even a portion of the way, to this house, if suspicion and detection are to be averted, it can only be done by my remaining on the spot! CHAPTER IX. Active and Intelligent. FOR two whole days the little household at Loddonford remained in much the same state, the only difference being that Anne Studley's simulated illness began to assume a real character; the frightful mental pressure under which she was labouring had its effect, and symptoms of fever, of a mild type indeed, but sufficient to cause the keenest anxiety to her father, made their appearance. The captain's watch was unduly prolonged, and, even when relieved by the nurse, he could not...
