Not illustrated. 1899 Excerpt: .a notice describing the time and location of the place where such injury occurred, cause and extent of the damage or injury. The object of such provisionsin municipal charters is to give the city opportunity, for the protection of the treasury, to investigate such claims. The notice is suficient if it gives particulars which will enable the city to perform this public duty, and we cannot see why the notice in question did not perform this function. How can it be said that a statement of injury to the head does not embrace an injury to the eye Z The defendant s counsel contends that this statute is to be strictly construed, citing S/tee/ry v. T /re Cit 1/ of New York (29 App. Div. 263). That decision was based mainly on the fact that the notice did not express any intention to sue the city, as required by the Consolidation Act, and this was held to be a fatal defect. The defendant s charter has no such requirement. The court cited three autnorities in support of a strict construction of the act, all of which relate, not to the contents of the notice, but to the question of its proper service on the city. No such question arises here. We have been unable to find any authority which requires such a strict construction of the statute as to insist upon more than a statement A pp. Div. Qiaconn DEPARTMENT, OCTOBER Term, 1899. of facts sufiicient...
