The Money-Sovereignty Recovery Act

By Jorge H Moromisato

Rogem Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 104 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. This is the most comprehensive and ambitious piece of legislation ever proposed. Even my closest friends are convinced that this Act proposal will be totally ignored by those in power; only if we let them! I say. (The author) By restoring to government, through the Fed, the sole power to create money, the legislation proposed in this book, when enacted, shall, among other things:

- Give the Fed the effective control of the circulation of money within the country;
- All but eliminate the destructive business cycles;
- Provide a new and substantial source of revenue for the federal and state governments;
- Extend government control over the flow of U. S. dollars abroad;
- Empower the U. S. government to issue loans to foreign governments without impacting the fiscal budget;
- Eliminate the burden of the public debt within less than a decade;
- Free the government from the need to borrow from private funds;
- Restrain economically useless and dangerous financial activities;
- Reverse the U. S. Trade deficit and eliminate the dangerous overhang of U. S. money abroad;
- Promote economic growth, reduce...
