Not illustrated. 1824 edition. Excerpt: . Most professors are like iron between two equal loadstones: God draws, and they incline towards God; and the world draws, and they incline to the world; they are between both; they would not leave God for the world, if they might not be engaged to leave the world for God. But if they must part with all, with every lust, every darling, every beloved sin; why then the spirit of Dermis possesses them, and God is forsaken by them. My brethren, this is the great reason why many that come to be but almost Christians go no farther; some one beloved lust or other hinders them, and after a long and high profession, parts them and Christ for ever: they did run well--(Gal. v. a,) but here it is that they give out, and after all fall short, and perish to eternity* Thus...

Reviews

This is the finest book i have got study right up until now. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Keanu Johns

This is the finest book i have read until now. It is filled with wisdom and knowledge You can expect to like just how the author compose this ebook.
