SOLDIER FROM THE WAR RETURNING: THE GREATEST GENERATION S TROUBLED HOMECOMING FROM WORLD WAR II

HOUGHTON MIFFLIN, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 201 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. In Soldier from War Returning , historian Thomas Childers shatters that myth. Interweaving the intimate stories of three families - including his own - he reveals the true cost of the war. Alcoholism, homelessness, and unemployment were rampant, leading to domestic violence and a skyrocketing divorce rate. Hundreds of thousands of soldiers were diagnosed with psychoneurotic disorders (now known as PTSD). Though many veterans bounced back, others were haunted for decades afterward; some never fully recovered. Novelistic in its telling and impeccably researched, Childers book is a stark reminder that the price of war is unimaginably high, and the toll can stretch across generations.
