Loi sur l Instruction Publique. Paris: 1833. The word primary, as applied to instruction, is not yet naturalized in our language; but as Education is a subject in which, as in all new sciences, neologisms are pardonable, we shall take leave to use the expression, Primary Instruction, to denote that training of a moral, intellectual, and partly also physical nature, which it is desirable the whole body of a civilized nation, even the...
